NERVES ARE NOT A BOTHER NOW

Woman Sleeps Well and Does Work Without Trouble Since Tanlac Came.

"I was in a street car accident and ever since, until I took Tanlac recently, I have been extremely nervous," said Mrs. John Piper, 504 Market street, Indianapolis, Ind.

"I couldn't sleep at night and my little noise would just make me jump. I had nervous chills and my heart beat so at times that I'd have to lie down and be quiet for an hour or so. I lost weight and I got so I looked bad."

"My stomach was out of order, too. My appetite was poor and I was bothered with gas on my stomach after eating."

"I was told that Tanlac would help my nerves and build me up and so I tried it. Well, sir, by the time I had finished my first bottle of Tanlac my nerves were in much better shape and I was sleeping a lot better. My nerves are steady now and I'm able to go about my work without trouble."

"My stomach is back in shape again, too. My appetite is much improved."

"If you are not feeling right get Tanlac at the Public Drug Store in South Bend and at the Red Cross Pharmacy in Mishawaka. Adv."

DOCTOR GIVES RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR

Well Known New York Physician Gives Recipe for a Home-Made Gray Hair Remedy.

A. L. Paulson, M. D., who has practiced medicine in New York City for many years, gave out the following recipe for home-made gray hair remedy: "Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately turned black, brown or light brown, which ever shade you desire, by the following simple remedy that you can make at home:

"Merely get a small box of Orlex powder at any drug store. It costs only 25 cents and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in one ounce of water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for use come in each box."

"You need not hesitate to use Orlex as a $100.00 gold bond comes in each box guaranteeing the user that Orlex does not contain silver, lead, zinc, sulphur, mercury, antine, coal-tar products or their derivatives."

"It does not rub off, is not sticky or greasy and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger." Adv.

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mild coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonsfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It is an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dirt, and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mild coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Adv.

FRANCE PLANNING FOR WORLD TRADE

American Ally Will be Rival After War is Ended, Belief in United States.

By Victor Elliott.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Though bled white by the war and very weary of it, France yet retains sufficient spirit to be capable of elaborate preparations for trade after the war is over.

And although the United States and France now are as friendly as it is possible for nations speaking different languages to be, there will be intense rivalry between the two nations when peace comes. For foreign trade will be the attraction for all the great nations of the world at the end of the war and all of them will be rivals.

France is making far-sighted plans to extend her trade. In connection with the preparations this country is making, reports have been received by the department of commerce showing that the European republic has not permitted the war to kill her trading spirit.

The Lyons fair is an institution at the city bearing that name which long has been the great market place. It is an annual affair. After the war France expects to make the Lyons fair bigger and better, so that all the world will come to buy. She plans to do likewise as to other fairs, but Lyons will be the principal one.

Germany, incidentally, expects to do the same thing in connection with her Leipzig fair. The rivalry between the Lyons and Leipzig fairs has in the past been great, but is expected to be greatly increased after the war—unless the Leipzig fair should be abandoned.

The French government is building up a large organization to assist in developing French foreign trade as soon as peace comes. Agents are being sent out to cultivate trade connections in many parts of the world. France also is perfecting her facilities for obtaining credit information regarding firms and individuals in foreign lands.

Associations of exporters are being formed with a view to strengthening the various industries which hope to increase their sales by expressing goods to all the world.

NEW YORK BANKS DEFY LEE TO SHOW PROOF

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—In behalf of the Associated Banks of New York city, Walter E. Frew, chairman of the New York clearing house committee, sent a telegram Wednesday night to W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen in Cleveland, challenging him to produce proof of his reported assertion that four banks in this city were behind the effort to delay the eight hour law and make government operation of the railroads a failure. The telegram said:

"You are reported in the newspapers of this date as having made the following statement before the railroad commission in relation to present delays in railroad operation:

"I think a sufficient number were interested in working to increase delay and cost of the eight hour law and to make government operation a failure. If I looked for the real cause I would trace it back to about four banks in New York city."

"Conscious that this statement must be entirely without foundation, we call upon you in behalf of the New York banks to present your proofs, and if you have no such proofs that you should concede that fact. The financial institutions of New York as a whole and individually, have worked and intend to work loyally to aid the government in every field of its operations, and it is unjust that reflections of this character should be made upon them."

VIRGINIA LEE CORBIN AND FRANCIS CARPENTER. DIRECTION WILLIAM FOX

"Treasure Island," six reels, Auditorium Saturday.

Grace Hoot, who plays the "Movie Queen" in Henry V. Savage's new musical comedy success "Have a Heart" which comes to the Oliver theater, Monday, Feb. 11.

THEATERS

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Edith Storey, probably one of the best and most popular actresses in pictures, will be seen at the Auditorium today in her latest release entitled "The Eyes of Mystery," a smashing love and adventure story filled with mystery and romance and said to be fully worthy of the talents of this brilliant woman. As Carmichael in this five-part feature, Miss Storey is obliged to swim, shoot, ride—do all the "stunts" in which she excels and she just revels in a chance to display her athletic ability. The scenes of the story are laid in the mountains of Virginia and some of the principal characters are the rough mountaineers of that state. The Ford weekly, which is always interesting, and the fourth episode of the new serial love drama, "The Mystery Ship," featuring Ben Wilson and Neva Gerber, are also on today's bill. Tomorrow Milton Sills and Gretchen Hartman will be seen in "Married in Name Only," a production which shows vividly the terrible conflict of fundamental passions of human nature, at the same time making a powerful plea from an eugenic standpoint. "The Milk Fed Vamp," one of those clever Fox "Sunshine" comedies, completes the bill.

AT THE OLIVER.

There will be an initial production this afternoon of "Her Unborn Child" at the Oliver theater. "Her Unborn Child" is an expose of birth control, with a startling plot and developments that are most surprising. Little Miss Winifred, a celebrated child actress, has been especially engaged for this production through the courtesy of her Chicago manager. There are 10 road companies of "Her Unborn Child" playing to dollar and a half prices, but notwithstanding this fact the stock prices will remain the same during its run at the Oliver. Miss Tiny Leone will play the role of "Beth," loved by "Waffles" with all the fire and intensity of 19 years. Miss Leone, with her youth and curls, will no doubt look very much the loveliest Miss of 16. The remainder of the company will be well and adequately cast and Mr. Williams promises a production that may well be remembered. There will be a matinee today and Saturday for ladies only. Men will positively not be admitted. There will be a final performance Saturday night.

"HAVE A HEART."

Henry V. Savage's presentation of the merry, tuneful musical comedy, "Have a Heart," is to be seen at the Oliver theater Monday matinee and night. "Have a Heart" concerns the tangled romance of a dashing young department store proprietor and his charming wife, Peggy. They have agreed to separate because of his innocent but misguided interest in a pretty shop girl. Then they find they are still in love and elope to a summer hotel at Blueport, R. I.

For a second honeymoon. Messrs. Bolton and Wodehouse have based their story on Sardou's delightful comedy, "Divorcons," and have liberally added modern musical comedy license. Col. Savage has provided a typical Savage cast and a large beauty chorus of singing quality. The company carries its own orchestra and, all in all, "Have a Heart" promises to fully sustain the past standard of this most reliable producer.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

"The Dairy Maids" is the title of a musical extravaganza depicting rural life and shown as the headline feature of the new Orpheum bill opening today. Eddie Foley and Lea Leture, two clever young people who sing and dance with remarkable grace and skill, are featured. The comedietta has a delightful plot and the laughs promised are many. Orville Stamm, who has proved his right to the title of "Boy Hercules," has a novel offering which includes besides his demonstration of strength, several musical numbers. One of these, on the violin, he plays while a 60-pound bulldog is strapped to his wrist. Clarence Wilbur, a clever monologist in tramp make-up, George Schindler, in amusing selections on the mouth-organ, and William De Hollis & Co. of comedy jugglers, complete the program.

AT THE CASTLE.

"Whither Thou Goest" will be given final showings at the Castle theater today. Admirers of that supreme emotional actress, Ethel Clayton, will be delighted with her latest character in the new photoplay which appears on the Castle screen for two days, starting tomorrow. It is entitled "Whims of Society" and shows the charming star in the role of a factory girl fighting for happiness against overwhelming odds. Life was a continuous struggle for her until the handsome son of the factory owner came to her rescue. This man did everything possible for her although it meant trials and tribulations for him in doing so. Miss Clayton has never been seen to better advantage than in this role. "Vengeance and the Woman," the thrilling serial, is also on the bill both days.

Golden-haired Mary Miles Minter is one of the foremost favorites on the screen today in the delineation of cute girl roles. She romps and flirts like a typical school kid and almost seems big enough for the romance they always involve her in. Today's picture at the LaSalle is called "Beauty and the Rogue." She tries to reform a crook and starts a string of events both dramatic and amusing, all well acted and nicely presented by pretty Mary and her supporting company. Friday's star is Mae Murray in "Princess Virtue."

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails. Adv.
